Once upon a time, lion went hunting and caught hare. Hare begged lion not to eat him. "Mr. lion why do you want to kill an animal that other animals fear? When they see me, they run away in fright. "Hare said. "Is that meant to be a joke?" asked lion. ;"No sir, I am serious. Give me a chance to prove it to you by taking a walk with me," said hare.

Since lion had just eaten and still had a large chunk of fat zebra meat in his store , he saw no harm in talking a short stroll with hare. "But I warn you not to try to escape. I am athletic and will catch you in seconds. You don't want to know what I will do to you when I catch you? Lion said. Hare agreed and they set off. Soon they came across a herd of gazelles. The animals fled for dear life when they saw hare and lion. -

"See what I told you," Hare said with a smile as he pointed at the fleeing gazelles. "Nobody is afraid of you Mr. Long Ears," said lion with a sneer. Let's keep walking and I will prove you wrong," said hare. As they approached a herd of zebras, the animals fled. "Elephants are not afraid of you hare," said lion, after a host of small animals had run away at the sight of hare and lion.

"Let's go where they are then," hare said confidently. As hare has thought, elephants respectfully walked away when they saw them. At that point, lion became scared of hare. He did not know the animals were actually afraid of him. Poor lion thought hare could harm him in the same way and ran away too!

Read the passage below and answer the questions 38 - 50.

Good behaviours, good habits and high moral standards are generally referred to as virtues. Honesty, patience, unselfishness, courtesy, obedience and self-control are some of the virtues which we should practice as we talk, play and spend time with other people. Whether at home, in school or at work. Kindness is another important virtue. If people are friendly and helpful we feel happy because they are kind to us. It is good therefore to treat others the same way.

Do you know some people who are lazy? Lazy people waste time and take too long to do anything. Laziness is not a virtue that is why we do not like lazy people? But we all admire hardworking people. They put a lot of care and effort in their work. Are you a lazy or a hardworking person?
