Part 2: Comprehension

Read the story and answer the questions

Dennis was a naughty boy. Anytime his elder brother would tell him something he disobeyed. One Friday afternoon, after the rain stopped, the ground was as wet as a fish. Dennis started playing bad games in the grass. He would slide on the grass then fall down. At one time he slid and hit a rock then fell down. "Brother, brother, help! help!" Dennis shouted. The brother came. When he saw Dennis bleeding he called his mother.

The mother came and held Dennis' hand. She asked him, "Where are you feeling pain? Are you hurt?" Even before Dennis opened his mouth, his mother saw Dennis' leg swollen and his toe bleeding. They lifted him up and took him to a house where she gave him first aid. She bandaged his leg and took him to the nearest hospital.

While in the hospital, the doctor injected him and applied some cream on his swollen leg. He later slept. When he woke up he said, "brother, I am sorry I disobeyed you, now see my leg is aching. I will be listening to you always." His brother said, "if you disobey me or your parents, you will always have accidents."
